Gospel mission trip

Every month we visit some new place for the Gospel mission. This month we visit a village about 110 Km from our place. The village name is Koligram and it is in Gopalganj district. I, my wife and Shawon we visit the village. The village is not very big, there have some Christian and they are converted from Hindu. Most of people are Hindu and then Muslim of the village. We say there Christian people are worshipping as like Hindu religious. They are following the culture of Hindu. We tried to talk with there people and distribute some gospel coin in them. But again i am rejected by the people. When i tried to distribute the Gospel coin they were stopped me. And when they know that i have another team who are also distributing the coin, they find them and stopped them. at last they call as a local political office for know about us and our work. But my Lord is King! He saved us. I go there and share about our work and i saw that there also some youths who are Christian who are also forcing me to leave that area, but i never! I say them to; please let me show you something, and i give them the coin and i share about our mission. Praise the Lord. They agreed with me and want to know the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I share them and i preach in them about the Gospel, and i prayed in them and i make a good Gospel field there, because they invite me there for more work because they want to know more and true. I really very grateful to Lord for He saved me and talk through me, i like to thanks all of our friends who are prayed for us. and requesting; please pray for us and those people who are really want to know more and join with us.
